

Annie Duany

Ms. Duany has been working with school-age children for almost 8 years with a drive to help and mold young minds. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Florida International University. While working in St. John the Apostle Catholic School, she has found her interest in teaching the elementary grades. She plans to continue her education to maximize her teaching approach and philosophy in the classroom.

